YOUR WEDDING CEREMONY

Fully licensed for civil ceremonies, Palais Coburg is one of Vienna's dream wedding venues. We would be delighted to help you plan the perfect day for exchanging vows. The piano nobile with the Mirror Hall and Family, Blue and Yellow Salons provides a magnificent setting for up to 40 people in a single room. If you wish, our Bösendorfer grand piano will provide the musical accompaniment. Or if you are looking for a smaller, more intimate ceremony, our suites offer an almost endless range of possibilities. For anyone who would prefer to tie the knot in an open-air ceremony, the Terrace, private garden and the terrace of one of our suites all provide a magical backdrop. Deep underground, the atmospheric rooms that once formed part of the old medieval city walls are an ideal choice for couples interested in a more unusual setting.

A dream wedding where the grass is always greener

Is there anything more romantic than an outdoor wedding? Sunlight glinting through the leafy treetops, a balmy breeze stirs the vivid bouquets, the shade of a rose-entwined pergola, fresh green grass underfoot – and in the midst of all this natural splendour, your dream wedding in Palais Coburg's enchanting private garden.

YOUR GARDEN WEDDING

Palais Coburg's idyllic and lovingly designed private garden is a unique location for an outdoor wedding in the heart of Vienna. And the shady outdoor seating at our recently opened restaurant Clementine im Glashauss on the other side of the palais is an inviting spot for fine gourmet food in a relaxed atmosphere. Whether you would like to say "I do" under the Kissing Tree or enjoy a summer wedding feast beneath the trees, our wedding team will be pleased to take you through all of the options.

The staterooms of the piano nobile are among the most spectacular in the Austrian capital. With their silk wall coverings, marble, intarsia floors, gold leaf, an open fireplace and tall doors leading to the terrace, the rooms where Europe's aristocracy once attended glittering receptions will light up your special day. Used either individually or as an ensemble, the Marie Antoinette Salon (60m²), Blue Salon (50m²),

CASEMATES

Dating back to the 16th century, the 270m² Long Casemate and 280m² High Casemate were once part of Vienna's underground fortifications. Their size and the care with which they have been preserved make the casemates truly unique. The lovingly restored sand-blasted brick walls, coupled with the light limestone floors and a lighting system carefully integrated into the structure, create a fabulous atmosphere for weddings – be it a refined gala dinner, romantic wedding dance, lavish party or a night of disco fever!

Party!

Because we know how to put our best foot forward

We will be delighted to provide the location for you and your guests to party the night away: with a bar, dance floor, disco ball and DJ, the stage is set for an unforgettable celebration!

A suite for your wedding night

Choose one of our 34 unique suites for the most romantic of wedding nights. We can make almost any wish come true – one or two floors, modern or imperial, with a sauna or a private terrace, and with views of St Stephen's Cathedral or the Palais Coburg garden.

No two suites are the same – just as every newly married couple is unique. All of the suites are named after members of the House of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, some of whom had the good fortune to meet the love of their life.

Suite 206 MARIE ANTONIE

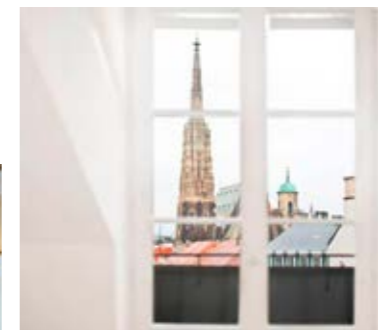

The young Hungarian princess Maria Antonia was presented to the Viennese court at the time of the Congress of Vienna. The 18-year-old daughter of the incredibly wealthy Count Koháry set eyes on the young Prince Ferdinand Georg August of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha – and was swept off her feet in an instant. In a letter she explained: “Him or no other”. Maria Antonia and Ferdinand were happily married for the rest of their lives. And they also commissioned Palais Coburg in Vienna

“I am the happiest being that ever existed,” Queen Victoria wrote in her diary immediately after her engagement to her cousin, Albert of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. To this day, their 22-year marriage is still regarded as one of the great love stories of the 19th century.
